Dear Travis,

Welcome to our March 2014 Email Newsletter! Here are some interesting news bits regarding Way Public Library.

- Have you hopped on board the Reader's Express? Are you number 268 in queue for that newest novel that you have been dying to read? Hoping to get it sooner? Our Reader's Express books are the newest books from the past 6 months. They only check out for 14 days, though, with no renewals. Reader's Express books can be found on a tall spinning rack next to the new books.
- To honor National Library Week, April 13-19, 2014, the Way Public Library Foundation & Friends will be sponsoring a bookmark contest for children in grades K-12. Participants may use colored pencils, crayons, or markers to design an original bookmark that highlights the unique role Way Library plays in changing people's lives. No computer generated illustrations, please. Prizes for the best bookmarks will be awarded. Also, winning bookmarks will be reproduced for distribution at Way Library. Please click here to download the official entry form.
- On Saturday, April 26 from 10 a.m. until 2:00pm, Way Public Library Foundation & Friends will be holding a used book sale. Stop in and take advantage of sunny bargains for book lovers of all ages! Fill a large bag for $15 or a small bag for $5. All proceeds will benefit the library.

account, please arrive 30 minutes early.

Pre-registration required. This is a free class but a $5 deposit is required at the time of registration. This will be refunded at the time of class.

April 15 - Science Fiction Book Club showing Blade Runner

Come join the Science Fiction Book Club at Way Public Library to watch and discussing Blade Runner (Final Cut). The movie showing will be at 5:30pm April 15th, in the Mercy Family Activity Center. The Science Fiction Book Club will be reading Phillip K.

Dick's classic Do Androids Dream of Electric Sheep? and will be discussing the book after the movie showing.

Anyone is welcome to attend the showing (reading is not required) and copies of the book are available at the Circulation Desk for those interested.

April 15 - Topical Tuesdays: Representative Teresa Fedor Presents Human Trafficking

Way Library, in cooperation with the League of Women Voters of the Perrysburg Area (LWVPA), welcomes Teresa Fedor, Ohio House Representative, 45th District, for a talk on human trafficking.

Join us on April 15th at 7:00pm for this important discussion. This event is free and open to the public. Registration is not required.

April 16 - A Tisket, a Tasket, Let's Make a Basket!

Join Way Library's own Lynn Fleure on Wednesday, April 16 at 2:00pm or 6:30pm for a hands-on spring arrangement workshop.

Participants will learn flower basket composition basics while creating an original fresh arrangement to take home. $15 fee includes all materials and is payable at time of registration.

Class size is limited; register early at Way's Information Desk. Tools to bring: scissors and floral/paring knife. (Please note that flowers and basket colors will vary.)

April 17 - Free Showing of Arsenic and Old Lace

Our next entry in our Reel Talk film series, Arsenic and Old Lace will be held on Thursday, April 17 at 10:00am. This film series, specifically crafted for fans of classic movies, is sure to please.

This 1941 comedy stars Cary Grant and Priscilla Lane as newlyweds who stop to visit Grant's elderly aunts and brother Teddy who thinks he's Teddy Roosevelt. Grant discovers the dotty old ladies have been poisoning gentlemen callers with Teddy burying them in the cellar, thinking they are Panama Canal fever victims. The movie co-stars Raymond Massey as another crazy family member accompanied by his doctor, Peter Lorre, both of whom show up at the house with serious problems of their own. Arsenic and Old Lace was a hit Broadway play that ran several years and in 1941 was adapted to film by Frank Capra. He directed this black farce at breakneck speed, and the result was one of Hollywood's most hilarious comedies.

Rudy Schroeder, area film buff, will be the guest speaker.

This event is free and open to the public. Registration is not required. This event is sponsored by Master Chemical.

April 17 - Bookaneers Book Club

On Thursday, April 17th from 4:00pm to 5:00pm we will be discussing Surprises According to Humphrey by Betty G. Birney. Join us for a fun program complete with snacks, crafts and fun activities. This program is for children ages 7-10.

Registration is currently underway at the Youth Services Desk. For more information, please contact Kinsey Zeisler, Youth Services Librarian, at 419-874-3135 x107 or kzeisler@oplin.org.

April 17 - Rhymes, Rhythms, and Rhetoric

Join us on Thursday, April 17 at 7:00pm as PRIZM Creative Community and Way Public Library present an open mic night in celebration of National Poetry Month.

Join us for an "Open Mic" program in which poets from the No-Mic author support group as well as the general public are invited to read original works from the podium. To be placed on the reading list ahead of time, email prizm@bex.net with "Open Mic," in the subject line. Guests who arrive by 6:45pm. can sign in for any additional reading spots available.

- how to make compost from table scraps and garden debris
- how to make your own garden fertilizer and compost tea
- other important facts about composting, from small scale with worms to large scale

This is a free workshop and registration is not required.

April 23, 2014 - Normandy with Judy Pfaffenberger

France is one of the most popular tourist destinations in the world, and Normandy is of particular interest to many Americans. On April 23 at 7:00pm, you can come along with travel junkie Judy Pfaffenberger on a tour which begins in Le Havre and continues to the Alabaster Coast, then Honfleur, Rouen, Cherbourg, and the historic D-Day beaches where we are reminded of the tragedy and triumph which took place there 70 years ago. The final stop is a perfectly timed sunset rendezvous at magnificent Mont St. Michel.

Admission and refreshments are free of charge.

April 24, 2014 - Reel Opinions with WGTE Public Media present: The Address

Way Library, in cooperation with WGTE, present the next installment of our film discussion series on Thursday, April 24th at 10:30am. Our April film will be The Address.

At the tiny Greenwood School in Putney, Vermont, 50 boys, ages 11 to 17, struggle through myriad learning differences to memorize and recite the Gettysburg Address, a rite of passage at the school for the last 35 years. Interweaving the history of this most famous of American speeches with the contemporary journey of the boys at Greenwood, "The Address" reveals the timeless resonance of Lincoln's words, while culminating in the triumph of the human spirit.

Admission and refreshments are free of charge. Registration is not required.

April 24 - Earth Day Celebration

Join us from 4:00pm to 5:00pm on Thursday, April 24th for a fun and informative afternoon as we celebrate with earth-friendly crafts and activities! This event is for children ages 7 to 10 years old. Online registration begins Thursday, April 10, 2014. For more information, please contact Kinsey Zeisler, Youth Services Librarian, at 419-874-3135 ext. 107 or kzeisler@oplin.org.

April 24 - Rain Gardens

Way Public Library invites you to discover rain gardens and their role in storm water management. This workshop will be held on April 24th at 7:00pm.

Rain gardens provide habitat for wildlife, absorb more rain water than a traditional lawn while removing pollutants from storm water, and recharge the ground water. Learn how rain gardens, rain barrels and rain chains can enhance your landscape in this free workshop. Site selection, plant selection, and installation and maintenance considerations will all be covered.

Vicki Gallagher, 577 Horticulturalist, and Judy Hagen, City of Perrysburg Storm Water Management Educator, will be the presenters.

April 25 -- Pizza & Pages Teen Book Club

Students ages 11-15 are invited to attend a lively discussion of Legend by Marie Lu on April 25 from 7:00pm - 8:00pm. Copies of the book are available at the Youth Services Desk. For more information, please contact Adria Pugh, Youth Services Coordinator, at 419-874-3135 x109 or pughad@oplin.org.
